The first impression of St. Michael's College to the incoming Frosh is always a warm one. The Crown and Sword Society and their familiar grey jackets become the by-word of the newcomers throughout Freshman Week. They are the Big Brothers who help to ease the transition.

Of course all freshmen must attend such functions as meeting the president of the college at the library tea and the never ending registrations and speeches; but after these tasks are completed and the last souvenir is purchased one may look back and see that it is all part of the never ending process of growing up.

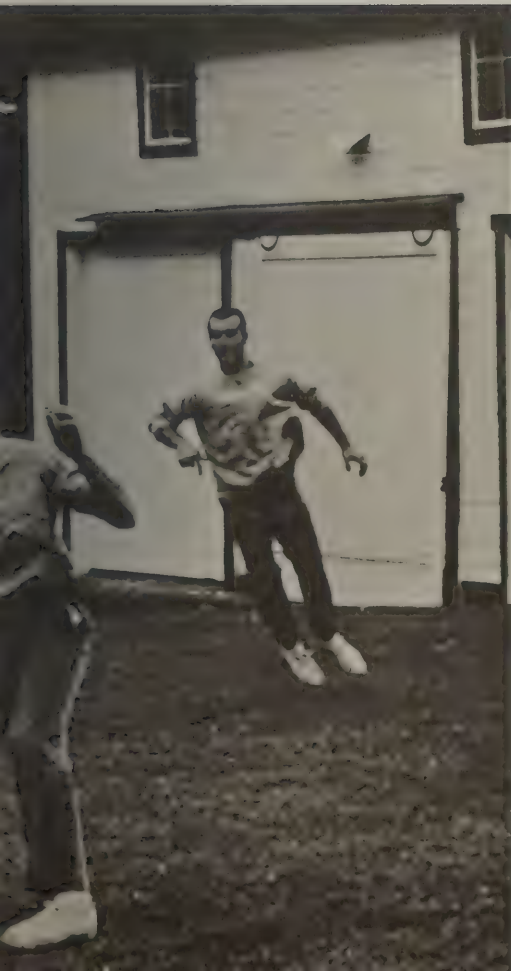

Boredom sets in at times during this week even though the Freshmen are kept on the move. The first week tests soon bring them to the realization that this is college. But, before there is time for anyone to become too despondent from being away from home there arrives the time for the talent show and the annual trip to Port Kent.

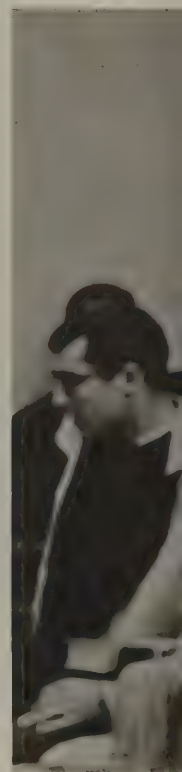

There are those who merely observe and those who are the participants in every class and this one is no different. This is how friends are made by finding a common interest and already the Freshmen start to break up into cliques.

After the festivities of Freshman Week wear off the student is again brought back to reality and finds that he must work and work hard if he is to become a successful Michaelman. The challenge is unique in that it cannot be found outside the walls of a college. It is only here that one can gain so much for so little. It seems a shame that so few realize it until too late.

Clubs and organizations start cutting into the classroom time after a while, each club trying to outdo the other by persuading the students to join their organization rather than the other one. In the student council the item of budgets always arouses controversy as to whether or not a club really needs that much money or whether or not the trip to Montreal is really a necessity.

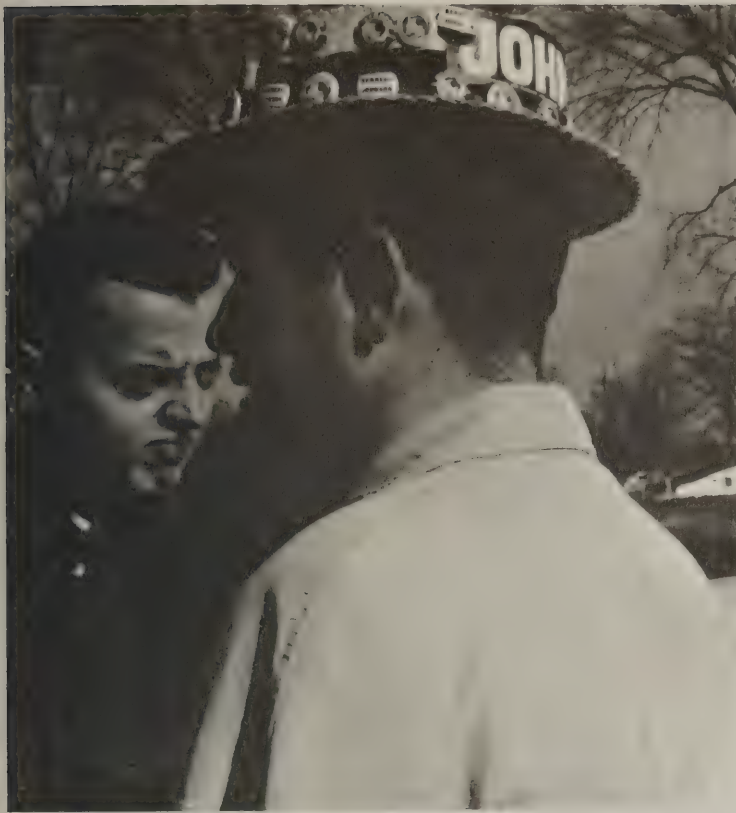

Some time still remains for one to participate in some outdoor activity before the winds from the North begin to blow, and all must find the shelter of a warm room.

We can always find time for a Kennedy Rally, weather favorable or not. The Senator from Massachusetts was met with enthusiasm in Republican Vermont as the Michaelmen went in droves to greet him at the airport. The motorcade that followed would have put New York to shame.

There is a time and a place for the military and once a year the corps at St. Michael's rears its head above all other activities on campus. The basics are given a chance to show what they have learned in the parade at Burlington.

Much preparation goes into the production of a successful Military Weekend and such was this one. This time out from the drill field in typical officer club style is always a pleasant change for the boys in blue.

Lectures sponsored by the Student Council largely take away the attendance from the lesser activities. Men such as Fr. DePaul, William Buckley, Jr. and Arthur Schlesinger drew attentive audiences from all corners of Winooski and Burlington. The intellectual atmosphere had finally reached St. Michael's College.

What would college be without its college sport? St. Michael's College has its college sport in the form of Basketball. The revered tall men take our minds off our work and we put all the effort into winning. Here is one place where the famed Michaelman Spirit shows to the utmost.

The excitement of the games in times passes on and the classes again take over as the dominant activity. Quarterly exams also come and go, and with them go also some of the less interested among us. An interruption comes about this time in the form of club pictures for the yearbook. Everyone wants his picture in the annual and many are willing to wait for hours for the opportunity.

Winter in Vermont invariably comes in like the proverbial lion. For many it is a source of irritation, for others a source of pleasure.

There is probably no better ski area in the East than the mountains of Vermont. Places such as Stowe and Underhill offer many leisurely hours for those who take advantage of them. But as everything else this too must end and when it does the spring thaw offers many puddles to ford.

The annual retreat always proves to be beneficial to all who attend. It is a time of mediation and reflection on one's actions during the past twelve months. It is surprising how much one can learn about himself in the short space of a weekend. For many it is a time of relieving themselves of a great number of burdens. The retreat master may provide a stimulus but it is only through individual effort that the retreat may at once come to fruition.

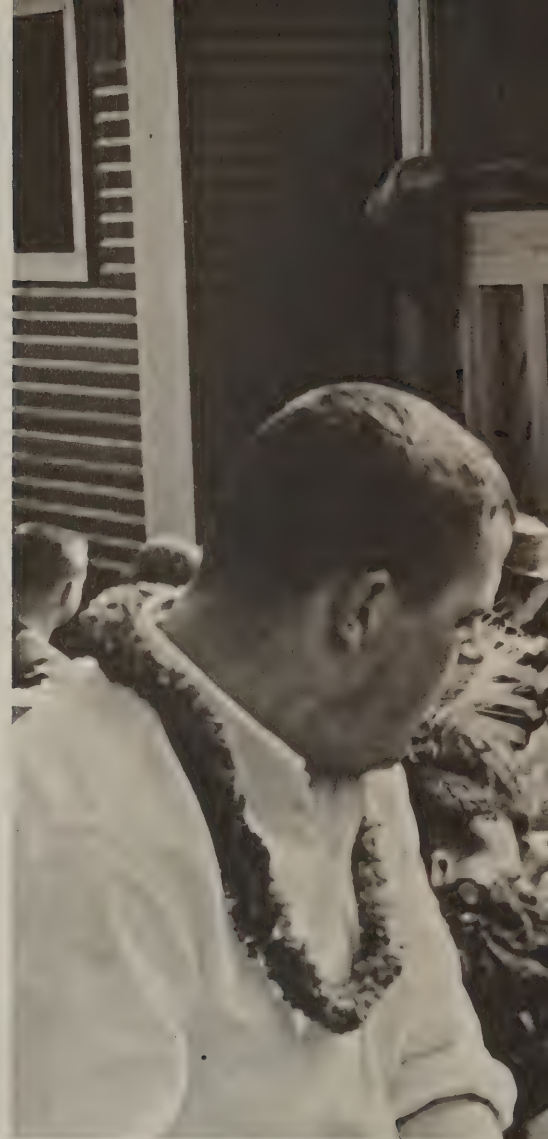

When the warm weather finally arrives many changes take place within the student himself. For the majority of the students it is a time of relaxation, beach parties, and vacations. For the Seniors in particular comes the realization that the end is almost here.

Reminiscing for a moment; most of the upperclassmen will remember last year's Junior Weekend. All of the preparation that went into the weekend may never be known, but the enjoyment of those who went will never be forgotten. From the greased pole climbing of P-Day to the end of the last party it was a very successful venture.

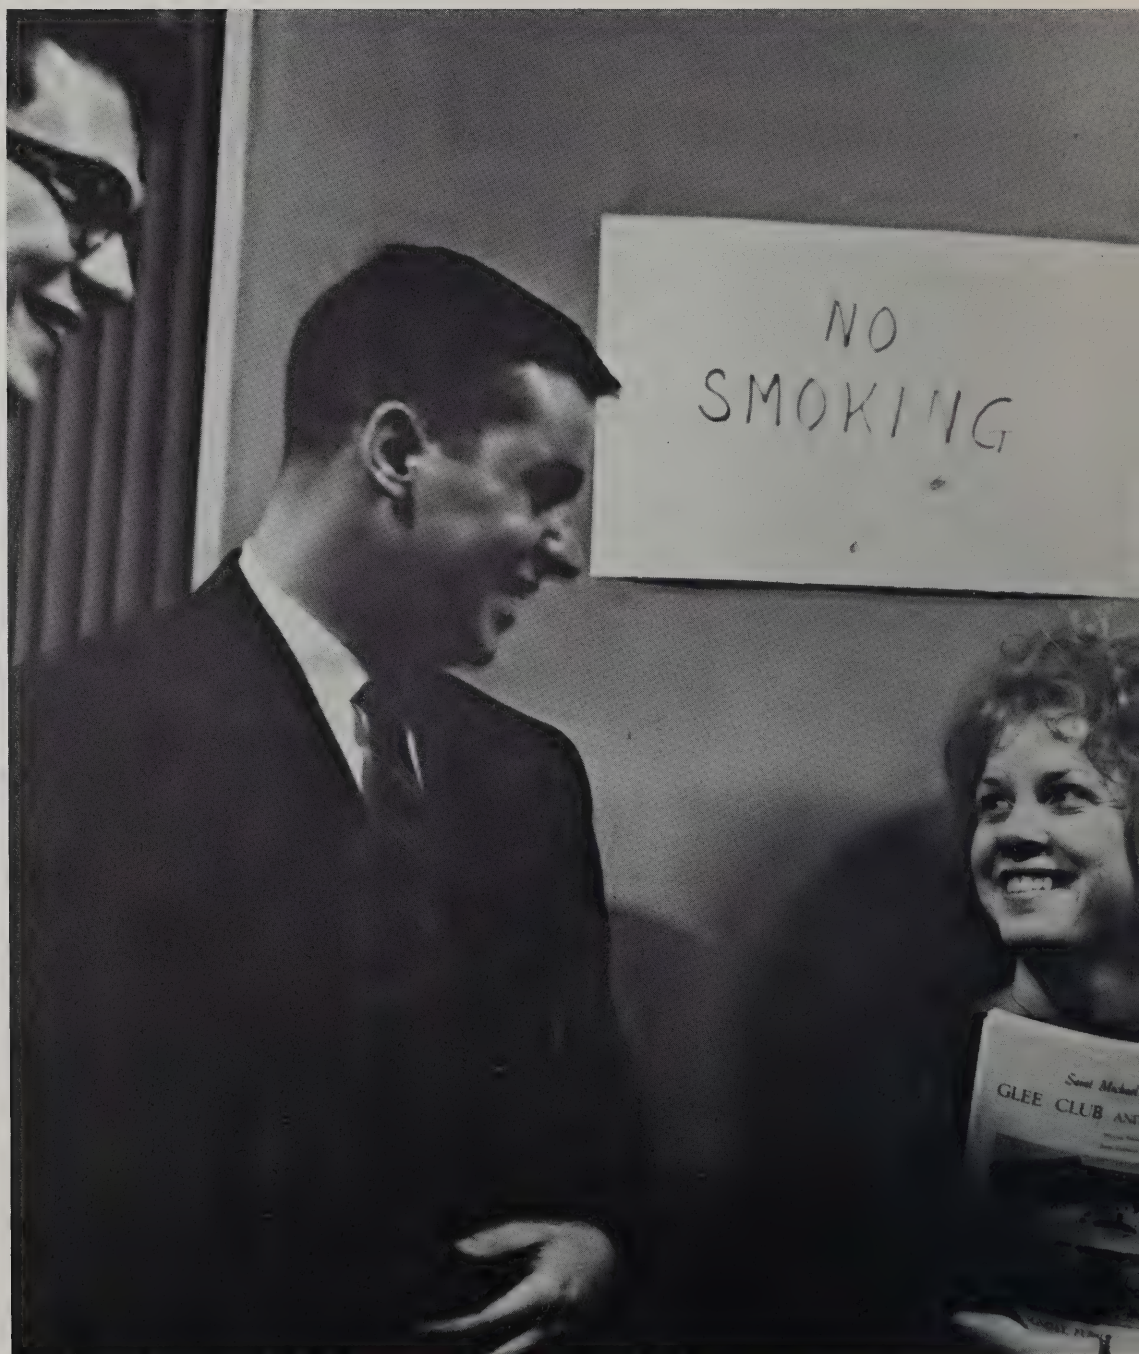

Graduation is viewed with mixed emotions. It encompasses the joy of achievement and the sorrow of leaving a friend. The Seniors are leaving and in a short time will be replaced by others who will call themselves by the same name, and who will share many of the same experiences that they have shared. The cycle seems unending and indeed it is.

Dedication

The class of 1961 proudly dedicates The Shield to Mr. John D. Donoghue. "Mr. D." is a true son of St. Michael's. As the Director of Public Relations he is our standard-bearer in the outside world. His vocational zeal to his alma mater is exemplified by his dedicated work in extra-curricular activities. As past director of the Glee Club and the Choir, he has communicated the fruits of his knowledge and love of music to all who worked with him. His vast experience in the field of journalism has proven to be an invaluable asset to The Michaelman and other campus publications. But most important of all, "Mr. D." is a sincere friend and a Catholic gentleman. Our hearts are attracted by his amiable personality which is reflective of that inner integrity which makes him a truly great man. His genuine loyalty and devotional service to St. Michael's has been and will be an exemplar for all Michaelmen.

Activities

Glee Club

The dream of Mr. John D. Donoghue came true this year with the establishment of a Music Department and a full time director for the Glee Club. After eight years of building the club to a quality never before attained by a Glee Club at Saint Michael's, Mr. Donoghue turned the club over to Mr. William Tortolano, Assistant Professor of Music, and has seen the club move on to even greater heights.

This year, under the direction of Mr. Tortolano and the officers, George O'Connor, Jim Garofano, Ed Richard, and Tom Walsh, the Glee Club has had the most successful season in its history. The high point of the season was the first international tour in the history of the club with a concert in Montreal. There, in a joint concert with Marianapolis College, the Glee Club gave its usual fine performance, receiving plaudits from both the audience and the critics.

Other concerts this year took the club to Rutland, Vt., Green Mountain Jr. College, Poultney, Vt.; St. Joseph's College, Hartford, Conn.; Rivier College, Nashua, N. H.; and Marymount College, Tarrytown, N. Y. The club gave two concerts on campus this year, one a Christmas Concert and the other a joint concert with Marymount College on Parent's Weekend. All of these concerts were unqualified successes.

Besides the international tour, the Glee Club has many other innovations this year. One of these was the joint concert on Parent's Weekend. It was the first time in its history that the Saint Michael's College Glee Club has played host to a Women's Glee Club on campus.

Another innovation was a program composed of songs in four languages. To the usual repertoire of English and Latin songs, were added songs in German and in French, a task exemplifying the high musical and cultural capabilities of the members.

A third innovation this year was the use of instruments in accompanying the Glee Club. At the Christmas Concert in Austin Hall, the audience was greatly impressed by the opening number, "Christus Vincit" by Peeters, which included not only the Glee Club and the able accompaniment of Jim Garofano at the piano, but also two trumpets, two trombones, and a timpani. Other numbers also included instruments such as the organ, bass and cello.

However, even with all these innovations and advances, the Saint Michael's College Glee Club remains basically the same, namely sixty men who enjoy good music and are willing to put in three to four hours of work each week to be able to sing it as it should be sung. The work is hard and completely voluntary, but the rewards are great; an appreciation of music, a feeling of accomplishment, and a certain pride to be able to say, "I am a member."

Choir

A firm foundation having been prepared for them by John D. Donoghue, this year's College Choir has excelled in every endeavor it has undertaken. With director Professor William Tortolano, in his first year at St. Michael's, the Choir has been able to reach the pinnacle of their capabilities. Mr. Tortolano splendidly instilled in the Choir a deep level of balance, tonal quality, and significant dynamics resulting in a finer appreciation for the music they sing.

This group underwent an organizational change during the past year. The election of officers was inaugurated with the concept of helping the Choir in its goal of becoming a recognized campus organization. Under the fine leadership of President Paul Boucher, with the cooperation of his excellent group of officers: Chris Geanacopoulos, Vice-President; Al Rose, Secretary; and Frank Chamberland, Librarian, he has been able to assist Mr. Tortolano in all his endeavors. The success of the Choir this year, as in the past, has been due to the accompaniment by Jim Garofano, the College organist.

The Choir, this year for the first time, was composed of three segments of the student body: the Scholastic Brothers of the Society of Saint Edmund, those members of the Society who are earning their

B.A. degree in Philosophy in preparation for the Sacred Priesthood; the Juvenists, the first year Pre-Theological students who have the intention of entering the Society; and a very capable contingent from the student body of the College.

With a positive manner, Mr. Tortolano introduced to the Choir many difficult polyphonic and harmonic sacred works. The organization had the opportunity to display their accomplishments at the High Mass on President's Day and the Feast of St. Michael. The result of their hard work was evident in their performance of a Special Mass on Parent's Weekend. This program was very well received and culminated the efforts of the Choir for the past year. In addition to the Mass on Parent's Weekend, the Choir has mastered the three voice Mass of Saint Francis of Assisi by R. K. Biggs and the two voice Missa Te Deum Laudamus by Perosi as well as many polyphonic motets.

In the future the Choir plans to travel to various religious institutions and shrines throughout New England to perform at several Church ceremonies in the Spring of 1961. A Liturgical workshop was planned on campus in conjunction with the Vermont Chapter of the American Guild of Organists in which the Choir demonstrated a variety of vocal techniques.

Publications

The Michaelman

Is The Michaelman out yet? These words are heard throughout the dorms on Friday evenings, as the students eagerly await the distribution of their weekly newspaper.

An average of six pages a week, presented in tabloid form, The MICHAELMAN, reports happenings on the Hilltop as well as other news which might be of interest to the students.

Organized and operated by a staff of fifty students the college newspaper is truly a "student publication." Throughout the 1960-61 school year, News Editor Frank Twarog and his successor, Luis Villares, saw to it that the student body was kept well informed.

Sports-minded students could always read the 6th page as Sports Editor, Wayne Roberts and his fine group of writers kept tabs on all Inter-collegiate and Intramural activities. And lest we forget—the witty sports talk of columnist, Mike Fallon, which attracted many campus readers.

But it is on page two that Editor, Donald Dakin spent most of his efforts. In an attempt to create "thought" on campus, he, along with such columnists as Nick Cioffi and Ray LeRoux, presented articles on everything from Conservatism to the Protestant Ethic.

The writing talent of these men, however, could never have been brought to the students' attention if it were not for the thankless work of the MICHAEL-MAN layout staff. Their Thursday night efforts are to be applauded along with the rest of the MICHAEL-MAN staff.

Shield

This year the Shield, under editor Robert Pellegrine, has undergone a complete metamorphosis. Starting from the front of the book you will notice the forty page pictorial section which is designed to portray life at St. Michael's from the student's first look at college during Freshman Week to his last look at college at graduation. The mode of these pictures is such that any student regardless of whether or not he is actually in the photograph, can in his imagination place himself in the picture and in the particular instance involved. The familiar blue snow scene that had graced the cover leaf for the past few years has been replaced by the striking black and white study taken by Hugh McColl, our very able photography editor. On the first page of the book is an informal picture of Mr. John Donoghue, to whom we have dedicated our annual, thus doing away with the usual formal pose.

This pattern of informality was carried as much as possible throughout the remainder of the book. In the activities section the pictures were taken in more or less relaxed poses except of course where the largeness of some organizations and honor societies were prohibitive.

The faculty section also saw a face lifting job administered. Contrary to popular belief some of the faculty, due to the updating of the pictures, have been seen to have far less hair than has been previously envisioned. As in the activities section, here too, many different settings were sought to provide a variance for the pictures. We were very fortunate this year in being able to utilize the new Student Union for this purpose. Much of the planning and coordination of this section was ably carried out by Harry Lloyd who put much time and effort into his work.

The senior section under Bill Haggerty and Fred Burkle experienced a welcome change with the innovation of dark backgrounds, eight pictures to a page, and the discontinuance of the familiar "nosegays."

The Shield was able this year to expand by twenty pages, and for this the credit must go to Dick Hickey and his staff whose money making talents made this venture possible. Such stalwarts as Freda, McCue and Ouellette pursued the downtown merchants until they were driven into submission by their efforts. Along the monetary lines Mike Fitzsimmons is to be given a pat on the back for his dogged efforts in raising money for the spring supplement.

Mike Fallon, sports editor of the Shield, directed his staff very capably to produce the fine sports section contained herein. This year it is found that the uncluttered look is the "thing" and of course the informality prevails even here.

Last but of course not least credit should be awarded to our advisor Father Paulin whose many talents and fine suggestions proved invaluable in the production of this work.

The Scientific

The St. Michael's Scientific was inaugurated under the auspices of the Pre-Medical Society, the Chemistry Society, and the Mathematics Club. Upon publication, the Journal was universally praised by students and faculty alike. With such indicated interest, the editors this year decided to print their journal in a better format including glossy cover.

In the summer of 1960, the co-editors, Joseph Rowan and David Drew, approached their fellow science concentrators as well as those freshmen who planned to major in science upon arrival on campus. As a result, in September the editors received 20,000 words of manuscript which met with the approval of our faculty advisors, Mr. Di Lorenzo and Dr. Kellner. As the year went on, more copy was received including book reviews and an alumni report.

Heeding the advice of the interested faculty, the editors decided to have but one large edition rather than the two smaller ones originally planned. Therefore, the press date was changed from November 5 to March 4. This enabled distribution of the publication before Easter vacation. Immediately a new copy seeking campaign for next years issues was initiated.

Honors and Honoraries

Student Council

The 1960-1961 Student Council under the leadership of Richard Hickey, began the year with a financial surplus which was inherited from the 59-60 Council. This was a boon to the Student Council Lecture Series which was reactivated this year. The Lecture Series, with the efforts of Chairman Joseph Rowan, was an outstanding success. Such notable speakers as Rev. Ademar DePauw O.F.M. of the United Nations and Jan Karski, former leader in the Polish underground, were received warmly by the student body. The highlight of the lecture series was the appearance of William F. Buckley Jr. in February and Arthur Schlesinger Jr. in April. Both men spoke on "Foreign Policy in the Atomic Age" from opposing viewpoints.

Under Council auspices the N.F.C.C.S. was revitalized and again Joseph Rowan and his unbound energies brought this organization up to the level of long established chapters in other Catholic colleges. The re-establishment of the N.F.C.C.S. at St. Michael's realized one of the purposes of the Student Council. This is the fostering of initiative among undergraduates and helping to contribute to the development of Catholic lay leadership by providing an outlet for that leadership in campus activities.

The Student Union Committee, under the direction of Steve Austin, accomplished much after Alliot Hall was opened in January. This committee dealt with such matters as ordering magazines for the lounge, placing a postal collection box in the lobby and in general, establishing precedent in the new building.

The Policy Committee, which is another innovation this year, proved invaluable and through this Council organization, ideas and suggestions from the student body were brought before the floor during the weekly Council meetings.

The Student Directory, which was initiated as a pilot project by the Council under Sophomore representative Dick Santora, proved to be such a success that the Council moved to publish a permanent directory in the following years.

The Student Council, through the various committees and representatives, assured more enthusiasm by placing all co-curricular activities more directly in the hands of the student body.

Crown & Sword Society

The Crown and Sword Society of St. Michael's College is primarily a service organization composed of selected members of the Junior and Senior Class. Since 1956, the Crown and Sword Society has continually upheld the fine tradition of service to the college. The spirit of this tradition of service is exemplified by the motto, "Stand for your sons," under which the Society stood ready to aid undergraduates, administration, alumni, and friends of St. Michael's.

This year, as in the past, the Society began the year organizing and planning the activities of Freshmen Week, introducing to freshmen, campus life at St.

Michael's. Among its other functions, the members serve as ushers at all the Sunday Masses and at the home games of the basketball team. The Society members also serve in the capacity of greeting prospective students and showing them the campus. Under the direction of Carl Denesio and his officers, the Society took the initiative in planning a "Pep Rally" the evening before the Dartmouth game.

The Crown and Sword Society, moderated by Rev. Francis X. Goky S.S.E. has become one of the most respected organizations on campus.

Arnold Air Society

The A.F.R.O.T.C.'s "elite" group is the Chaplain John Verrett Squadron, St. Michael's chapter of the National Honorary Service Fraternity, the Arnold Air Society. This society is "... dedicated to the furtherance of the mission of the United States Air Force at the college level by encouraging greater teamwork, technical knowledge, and cooperation among students enrolled in the A.F.R.O.T.C. program."

The Chaplain John Verrett Squadron has had a busy year with many activities being undertaken. Most important of these activities was the organization of the annual Military Weekend. The theme of this year's weekend was "The Spirit of Saint Louis," which featured two big name bands, the Illinois Jacquet at the jazz concert, and Jerry Wald at the formal ball. The proceeds from the king and queen contest went to the St. Joseph's Orphanage in Burlington.

Other activities performed this year by the society included an escort service for visiting military dignitaries, the sponsoring of the Armed Drill Team, selection of the outstanding basic cadet of the year, organization of a "pledge program" for cadets who wish to enter the society in their sophomore year. The society also took a group of children from the St. Joseph's Orphanage to a football game at the University of Vermont. This year the society attended the Area A Conclave in Boston, and the National Conclave in Detroit.

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges was conceived twenty-three years ago with the idea of creating one national basis of recognition for college students that would be democratic and devoid of dues, initiation fees or other cost to the student. Recognition by this organization means that the student was, first, officially recommended by the university or college he attends and, then, accepted by the organization itself. The criteria used in making selections in academic scholarship; participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities; citizenship and service to the school and promise of future success.

This year, the class of '61 selected seventeen members whom they deemed worthy of this honor. Each member receives a certificate of recognition awarded by the organization, recognition in the annual publication for the year during which he was selected in the form of a writeup of his college and personal record and benefits of the student placement service provided by the organization.

In addition to these services, Who's Who is designed to render greater, though less conspicuous service, not only as a means of compensation for outstanding effort and achievement, but as a goal to inspire greater effort to others and a standard of excellence to all students.

Delta Epsilon Sigma

The Scholastic year 1960-61 sees seventeen seniors, two juniors and three honorary members accepted into the Alpha Nu Chapter of the Delta Epsilon Sigma National Scholastic Honor Society, the first such society on campus.

Delta Epsilon Sigma is fostered at St. Michael's to elevate the general tone of the campus and to encourage studying and graduate work. It recognizes academic accomplishments and provides an intellectual meeting ground for its members. Here they are able to meet with their professors on an informal basis and discuss scholarly activities. Those applying for membership, therefore, must not only have a good moral character but also a minimum average of 85, a record of outstanding scholastic achievement and be at least a "cum laude" graduate.

Founded in 1938, Delta Epsilon Sigma received overwhelming support. It came to St. Michael's in 1939 with the late Dr. Durick, the Rev. E. J. Hamel and Dr. Quinlan as the original charter members.

Since then, our Alpha Nu chapter has been distinguished by our former registrar, Thomas A. Garrett, who held the office of National President for three successive years and became the first layman ever to hold that position.

Senior members received into the organization this year are: Paul DesRochers, Peter Clement, Pedro Quiros, James Willard, Gerald Dupree, Joseph Rowan, Robert Pellegrine, Donald Dakin, Richard Hickey, Roland Brosseau, Fred Burkle, Edward Cruess, Thomas Walsh, Raymond LaCroix, Leo Patry, John Reddan and John Graceffa.

Last year Juniors were admitted to the society for the first time. Those from St. Michael's were Camilo Brenes and David Mahon. Juniors accepted this year are David Drew and Peter Wursthorn.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. E. J. Fitzsimons and Dr. Martin Flanagan, both of Burlington and the Rev. F. X. Gokey, SSE were chosen as honorary graduate members this year. Richard DiLorenzo, instructor in biology, is president of the local chapter.

Alpha Epsilon Delta

On October 8, 1960 the National Premedical Honor Society, Alpha Epsilon Delta, installed a new chapter at St. Michael's College. This is the first Vermont chapter and therefore is designated as Vermont Alpha.

Alpha Epsilon Delta, a national honor society for premedical students, was founded at the University of Alabama on April 28, 1926. There are over 19,000 members in 76 active chapters at colleges and Universities throughout the United States. It is an affiliated society of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Council on Education, and a member of the Association of College Honor Societies.

The object of the society is to encourage excellence in premedical scholarship, to stimulate an appreciation of the importance of premedical education in the study of medicine, to promote co-operation and contacts between medical and premedical students and educators in developing an adequate program of premedical education, and to bind together similarly interested students.

The motto of the Society is incorporated in the name: Alpha Epsilon Delta—Truth I Pursue.

Membership in Alpha Epsilon Delta is a recognition of superior scholastic achievement of a student and it affords him an opportunity to develop a well-rounded personality and qualities of initiative, leadership and self-education by participating in the activities of his chapter and the Society.

Phi Eta Sigma

The Phi Eta Sigma Fraternity was founded in 1923 at the University of Illinois, to promote a higher standard of learning and to encourage high scholastic attainment among freshmen in institutions of higher learning. This fraternity has national recognition as one of a very limited number of purely scholastic honor societies, as distinguished from a large number of honorary and recognition societies. A general average of 90 per cent, acquired during the Freshmen year, with no grade below a "B," is a basic criteria for membership.

The society has a chapter at only one other Catholic institution, The Catholic University of America.

Three years ago, St. Michael's College began formal petitioning for a chapter. Approval was granted this fall from the national headquarters in Auburn, Alabama. The installation and banquet was held on Jan. 5, 1961. Dean James E. Foy, Grand Secretary of Phi Eta Sigma, was present for the induction ceremonies. Dr. Henry G. Fairbanks was the guest speaker.

Kappa Phi Kappa

The newly formed Gamma Alpha Chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa started the year with a drive to increase educational activities on St. Michael's campus. Working with the Education Club the chapter tried to stimulate an interest in teaching and the other aspects of education.

This year Gamma Alpha acted as the host chapter for the convention of the State Association for Student teaching which was held in April. Members of Gamma Alpha made available their services and the facilities of the campus to help insure the success of the conference.

Among other activities of the chapter was the induction of new members to fill the void left by the graduating seniors. It is hoped that these new members will carry on the fine and very beneficial work in increasing interest in education that has been done in the past.

Another highlight of the year was the National Convention in Philadelphia attended by Michael Kelly, Chapter president. This was the source of many ideas for new chapter projects and provided for an exchange of ideas with other chapter representatives from all parts of the country. Mr. Kelly also brought back many ideas concerned with organizational problems which were very helpful in determining future policy for the newly formed chapter, whose motto is "Service to the Field of Education."

Clubs and Organizations

Premedical Society

This year, the Premedical Society fulfilled its purpose with a dynamism unexcelled in previous years. The Society benefited over one-hundred members, orientating them to the aspects of careers in Medicine, Dentistry, and Research.

Last November, the Society participated at the Open House sponsored by the University of Vermont College of Medicine. The participants were addressed by faculty members and were conducted on a tour of the school and research facilities, and also of the Vermont Rehabilitation Center.

Due to the efforts of Secretary Gary Healy and Al Tarleton, an excellent selection of speakers addressed the Society. Such men as Philosophy Professor James Case and Dr. George Lucia, a Burlington anesthesiologist, spoke to the Society.

This May, Vice-President Bill Kern and Lou Tarnowski represented the Society at the Eastern Colleges Science Conference at Syracuse where they presented their research thesis. They were advised by Fr. Sullivan and were assisted by Dom Vinciguerra and Joe Gauthier.

The Society co-sponsored the annual Science Night organized by Don Verrier, and sponsored the Blood Drive promoted by Treasurer Jerry Moran and Larry Costanzo. In addition, the Society presented informative films at its meetings under the direction of John Cattaneo, and also procured practice chalk for dental examination preparation under the charge of Jack Graceffa.

The highlight of the year, for which Society President Bob Pellegrine and former President Fred Burkle were mainly responsible, was the installation of the Alpha Epsilon Delta chapter in association with the Premedical Society. Each year, AED extends membership to scholastically outstanding pre-medical students in recognition of their achievement.

Chemistry Society

The primary aim of the Saint Michael's Chemistry Society is to supplement the regular course work with a detailed analysis of current advances in chemistry, and also to show problems which are as yet unsolved. This is achieved in the form of lectures by student and guest speakers followed by an active question and answer period. There are field trips where the students visit chemical and research plants under the sponsorship of the Student Council.

This year the Chemistry Society visited Brookhaven National Laboratories on Long Island and the construction of Con Edison's first nuclear atomic power plant project at Indian Point, New York.

Last year the Society became affiliated with the American Chemical Society, the worlds largest professional organization devoted to a single science.

The Chemistry Society working in conjunction with the Pre Medical Society and the Mathematics Club sponsors the "Saint Michael's Scientific," a campus publication in which the students write, review and publish current articles on science.

The Chemistry Society also co-sponsors "Science Night." This is an annual event in which high school students visit the Physics, Chemistry and Biology Departments at Saint Michael's to view experiments, equipment and techniques in the various fields of science.

Along with the campus radio station, WSSE, the Society sponsors taped programs in chemistry which are made available by the American Chemical Society.

Politics Club

The Politics Club has as its primary purpose to raise the level of understanding of politics and the level of participation in politics. In making this statement, we of the club use the term "Politics" in its broadest possible sense so as to include contemporary political systems, government and its processes, law, and jurisprudence.

This year has been especially fruitful for us due to the occurrence of the National Presidential Elections. The events leading to and including the elections afforded ample opportunity for close participation and practical experience in politics and an analytical approach to these events.

Now, for the first time a great stress is being placed on law and jurisprudence. Speakers were secured concerning not only legal studies but also the general practice of law. This legal interest was especially stimulated by the uniting of the Pre-Law Society with the Politics Club at the commencement of the Academic year.

A great deal of insight and practical experience has been gained each year by virtue of our annual field trip. In the past it has been customary to travel to the National Capital of Canada at Ottawa, Ontario. This year, however the members of the Club went to our own National Capital at Washington, D. C.

Considering our varied activities, we of the Club feel that the purposes and aims of the Politics Club have been dynamically fulfilled.

Education Club

The purpose of the Education Club of St. Michael's College is the furtherance of educational aims and principles. The student benefits by receiving a better understanding of the field of his choice—receiving it first hand, and not out of a text book.

It was decided in the academic year 1960-61, to do this by adopting a theme for the work. Our first semester, "Working in the Field," was chosen. It was accomplished for the most part, by bringing in prominent speakers from the area, and having them explain their job, how they liked it, their ideas for improvements, and their all-round views of education. These speakers were carefully chosen so as not to overlap. For example, a superintendent, a principal, a teacher with years of experience and a newly certified teacher presented talks.

In the second semester "The Educational Plant of a State," was chosen as the theme. Education is not limited to teaching on the various levels, it also includes the administrative aspect of this field. In the second half of the semester answers were sought for the question of —"What else is there for me in education besides teaching?" This question was answered by the use of speakers, who gave to the club an inside look at the educational plant of a state, requirements for certification, special services, and the legislative aspects of education.

This was supplemented by various conventions, and meetings of an educational nature around the state. The Club also supplied a medium for people to be inducted into Kappa Phi Kappa.

Knights of the Altar

Three years ago Father Poirier issued a request to the students of St. Michael's for an organization to assist at the ceremonies of the Church. The call was answered by a few who felt the need of such an organization on campus. This group took the name Knights of the Altar. Under the efficient tutelage of Father Poirier, they learned the proper way to assist at the various church services.

Last year the club began to expand and due to its enthusiastic participation in church ceremonies, was asked to initiate a "Dialogue Mass" on Sundays.

The Knights of the Altar, now in its third year of service to the college, has become one of the most active organizations on campus. The membership of the organization has almost tripled in its three years of existence. This year the Knights of the Altar submitted a constitution to the Student Council and was recognized by the council as an official organization on campus with regular club privileges. Under the direction of the new moderator, Father Keating, the Knights of the Altar has also obtained the honor of reading the Epistle and Gospel at Sunday Masses. This year, in addition to serving and assisting at the various church services on campus, the club sends servers to nearby Trinity College. Another function of the club is a course of instruction offered to prospective Knights of the Altar.

Business Forum

This was the year of stimulation at St. Michael's and among the vanguard co-curricular activities on campus was the Business Forum. As stated in its constitution, the Business Forum is bent on assuring "enthusiasm" for co-curricular activities and fostering "initiative" among undergraduates in pursuit of their concentration, while providing an outlet for leadership in campus activities.

Keenly responsible in their advisory-role for the success of the Forum were the three moderators, Mr. Harold Knight, M. George Fortune, and Dr. Joseph Amrhein. A skeleton outline was composed at the start of the year by the five officers and committee chairman: Pres. Hugh McColl, Vice-Pres. Eugene Mitchell, Treasurer Peter Comber, Recording-Secretary Edward Rickard, Corresponding Sec. Richard Barry, and Activities Committee Chairman Camilo Brenes.

Highlighting the schedule were the series of guest lectures. At the first-dinner meeting, Dr. Edward F. Murphy, addressed the Forum on the Importance of Public Speaking for the Business Man. In his role of Placement Director, Mr. Thomas J. Kenney encouraged Graduate Study as a preparation for entrance into the Business field. Mr. James Fayette, President of Cliquot Club Bottling Co. of Vermont, Inc. and Vermont Fruit and Grocery Co., accepted the invitation to reveal some personal experience in meeting the Problems of Small Business.

Instituted as a permanent activity, the Publications Committee, under Joseph Kennedy, contributed weekly articles concerning current business observations to the Michaelman, and developed the Forum's pamphlet St. Michael's Business Review.

Another program undertaken by the Forum was that of research in continuance of a survey begun the year prior with reference to the "Education of Business Men and the Importance of Graduate Schools in Achieving High Executive Positions." Two subdivisions of the over-all program were administered by the Secretarial Bureau under George Moss O'Connor and the Statistical Bureau headed by George Nicholson.

Suitably culminating the campus fiscal, the Forum held its final dinner-meeting at which the Wall Street Journal award was presented the top senior Business student.

The National Federation of Catholic College students, a prominent New England Student organization, was reinstituted at St. Michael's College after an absence of several years.

In the spring of 1960, Joseph Rowan was asked by Richard Hickey, Student Council president, to look into the possibilities of reactivating the campus chapter. After a summer of writing to "N.F." chapters in the East a plan adapted to the needs of emphasis on campus activity was presented.

Among the main objectives was to present Catholic priests and lay leaders who would show the practicality and interesting aspects of Catholicism. The purpose of such activities was to develop a healthy respect for the faith. Another facet of activity was a discussion group program which ran the gamut of topics from atheism to Zen-Buddhism. With Senior participation they proved to be quite successful.

After presentation of the plan in September, each class elected two delegates to participate in the administrative activities of the campus

NFCCS board. These men and the Junior and Senior delegates with the committee chairman also organized and planned all the activities.

The St. Michael's College chapter held three open intercollegiate forums which proved to be enlightening to all. Dr. Henry G. Fairbanks spoke on "Catholic Leadership in the Far East," Doctor J. O'Brien on "The Consequences of Pre-Marital Relations," and a minister, a priest and a rabbi presented an inter-faith forum. Several priests and faculty members including Fr. Keating, Mr. Gianelli, Fr. Couture, and Fr. Anderson, speaking on topics indicative of their forte, were also presented at the regular campus meetings.

Another activity was the poll for the outstanding Catholic student which Edward Creuss won by a tri-class support. The campus chapter also sent its long absent delegates to the fall, winter, and spring conventions hosted by other NFCCS chapters in the New England region. Much helpful information for organization and programming was exchanged at these meetings.

Knights of Columbus

The Father John Verrett Council of the Knights of Columbus was established at St. Michael's College in the fall of 1959 for a variety of purposes.

The Knights of Columbus, realizing that in unity there is also strength, is constantly exercising its resources for the benefit of mankind. This may range from the individual charitable works of the various councils to the concerted effort by the Knights as a unit. The Knights are instrumental in bringing the truths of the Catholic Church to those millions who still lack knowledge of it. By enlarging its membership, more effective results may be obtained in this work.

It is also realized that the college student of today is the community leader of tomorrow. The Christian works of the Knights demand effective leadership in order to move forward in our changing times.

Being one of the newest organizations on campus, the council is still undergoing a building program. All efforts are being exerted in the direction of an increased membership. Although activities have been limited so far, it is hoped that we can establish a strong council as a part of that organization that has been so often called the right arm of the church.

We at St. Michael's are proud to be a part of this great work and we are eagerly looking forward to the day when a strong, progressive council, composed of the students at St. Michael's takes an ever-increasing role in the development of the true Christian gentleman.

Ski Club

With the strength of seventy ardent skiers and membership in the International Outing Club Association, the National Ski Association, and the Mount Mansfield Ski Club, the newly organized Saint Michael's Ski Club embarked on its first year.

In February the Ski Club sponsored the Interclass Ski Meet and an "Afternoon Winter Carnival" at which snow sculpturing, skating, skiing and dancing met with popular approval. February also saw the Ski Club lending its manpower to the Ski Team in running the Intercollegiate Intermediate Championship races at Stowe.

The club also presented the movies of Warren Miller in February and March providing the members with the tips of an expert.

The club sponsored bus transportation on Friday nights to the Underhill Ski Bowl thus affording an opportunity for skiing under the lights to its members and students from Saint Michael's and other colleges in the area.

The conveniently located ski lodge was newly furnished this year giving weekend skiers a place to stay while enjoying a weekend at Stowe.

Newman Debate Society

The Newman Debating Society of St. Michael's College, under the very capable leadership of former president Henry B. Fortier, this year undertook a varied schedule of forensic activities. The Society concentrated on building a strong team for next year. Special stress was placed on teaching and drilling the members in the fundamentals of debate and public speaking. Frequent interclub debates and evidence sessions provided the Society with the opportunity to practice and develop its potential. In addition, the members were afforded the chance to serve as judges during interclub and nearby high school debates, and presented several exhibition contests in the Burlington area, both activities being aimed at building the strength of the Society. The varsity debators, Paul Upham, Tom Roney, Frank Amodemo, and Stan Hoghe, conducted workshops and seminars in such fields as organization, platform technique, and oratory.

The Debating Society also undertook its regular schedule of intercollegiate debates, the national debate topic being: Resolved: that the United States should adopt a program of compulsory health insurance for all its citizens. Two-man and four-man teams represented St. Michael's in tourneys at Boston College, U.V.M., Amherst, Norwich, Middlebury, Tufts, Dartmouth, and M.I.T., as well as at the St. Michael's Invitational Tourney held here earlier in the year. The club was also represented in several novice tourneys by Tom Johnson, Walter Dec, Joseph L'Herault, and William Powell.

Sociology Club

The 1960-61 school year saw the Sociology Club become a fully recognized Campus organization. Its purpose is to keep Michaelmen informed of the Social Problems existing in the World and in our Country.

Lectures, movies, surveys and group discussions were all part of the activities scheduled throughout the year.

His Excellency, Bishop Robert Joyce of Burlington was a guest speaker and gave an excellent talk on the role of the Layman in the Church. Other speakers were the Reverend Moses B. Anderson S.S.E. who lectured on the Church in Regards to Segregation, and Mr. Frank Dermody with his topic of Federal Aid to Education.

In October 1960, the club took a poll on campus as to who would win the Presidential election. The results were approximately the same as those taken throughout the country at that particular point in the campaign.

The club showed films that dealt with current social problems in our society and they were received with much enthusiasm.

Another program was initiated with the Foreign Students on campus to exchange customs and ideas. This program resulted in a greater understanding of the customs of many countries.

Professor Joseph Powers, moderator of the club, gave Lectures and directed discussion groups composed of club members. Among his Lectures, Mr. Powers included the Requirements of Poll Taking.

The Club in the future hopes to continue its policy of fostering lively discussions and keeping the student body informed of the important social questions of the day.

Modern Language Club

The academic year of 1960-61 saw The Modern Language Club develop into one of the more popular clubs on campus. Under the capable leadership of the officers, James Van Wagenen, Armand Crevier, Paul Des Rochers and Henry Bessette, it received its first budget from the Student Council. Having this money to work with, the club sponsored two trips to Montreal under the direction of the club moderator, Dr. Alfred Cismaru.

An extensive tutoring service was supplied to all language students in need of extra help. The committee for Tutoring Aid, headed by Mike Ruggiero, gave substantial aid in learning Spanish, French and German to some twenty students. The club also conducted two informal teas during the course of the year, one at the Christmas season and the other before the beginning of Lent. Both of these social events of the club proved to be very successful. Closing out the year's activities, two classical French films were "premiered" for the benefit of the entire campus.

Although The Modern Language Club is one of the newest clubs on campus, it has proved to be one of the most successful and beneficial clubs at St. Michael's.

AFROTC Concert Band

The St. Michael's College AFROTC-Concert Band, under the very capable direction of Mr. William Tortolano, has seen many innovations introduced during the past year in paving the way for a first-rate college band. Mr. Tortolano, who comes to St. Michael's from a teaching post at the New England Conservatory of Music, has had considerable experience in band and orchestra work.

In an attempt to broaden the entire scope of the band, Mr. Tortolano has introduced classical and semi-classical numbers to the band's repertoire. These numbers include "Air and Finale" from "The Water Suite" by Handel, a trumpet suite by Purcell, selections from

"My Fair Lady," a Christmas Carol suite, and "Psalm 150" by Franck. Marches include the "Washington Post," "El Capitan," and "When the Saints Go Marching In."

For the first time this year the band has appeared along with the Glee Club at their annual Christmas Concert and the annual St. Joseph's Benefit Concert in Rutland, Vt. Due to a conflict with the Mid-Winter Break this year the band did not go to the Saranac Lake Winter Carnival, as it has done for the past few years. The band presented a concert at Parent's Weekend, brought to a close the year's activities by its appearance in the Military Review.

Drill Team

If one sought proof of the excellence of Detachment 865, he need only look to the newsreels of the drill competition held at Westona Air Force Base where the New England Champions captured the crown for the fourth straight year. The team was welcomed with a traditional standing ovation and demonstrated a superb display of precision marching which left them with a score of 94.3 out of a possible 100 points and once again placed the name of St. Michael's College on a leaf of the golden book of excellence. This score was the second highest in the history of drill competition.

This year with the team being led by its Commander Cadet Major Frank Steele and executive Commander Cadet Capt. Michael Mahovich, both having been members of previous championship teams, there shows strong promise that the team will put on the same fine showing as it has in previous years. Much of this promise being attributed to the fact that there is an added incentive to win; a chance to compete in the National Competition at Washington D.C. during the annual Cherry Blossom Festival. With crowd pleasing precision movements such as "to the winds," "English" and "Jones sequence," the team is sure to once again come home victors.

Under the leadership of Cadet Major Roger Plasse and instructions in the use and handling of the B.A.R. and M-1 rifle by Robert Paterson, the Armed Drill Team has advanced a long way in its first year of existence. Within the next few years it is expected to take its place as an equal to the Unarmed drill Team. The team is composed of 20 members from the Freshman and Sophomore Classes.

WSSE

WSSE in 1960-1961 was relocated in its new studios in Mike Town, thanks to the administration, and the untiring efforts of Fr. Coombs and Bill Mazur. The cohesiveness of an energetic and diversified group of participants resulted in "Counterpoint," a series of programs originating from England, France and the Netherlands. A record collection, increased by one hundred and thirty new classical albums, attributed to better programs of a college nature.

Since last year, we have been co-operating with WRUV, the radio station at the University of Vermont, in programming live newscasts on a network basis. This network comprised an exchange of programs which extended WSSE's air time to 13 hours a day.

Technical advances went along with the new studios: a rebuilt console, new underground wiring system, amplifying equipment and a fully equipped workshop.

WSSE co-operated with the Brazilian students this year by presenting "Brazilias in a Snow Campus" which proved to be enjoyable to both organizers and listeners alike.

Our future looks bright with the increasing facilities, personal interest and the hope of achieving greater benefits for the members of the organization.

Carmin Pizza, station manager, a four year member of WSSE, directed the programming and was responsible for many of the innovations realized during the past year.

MARS

The Military Affiliate Radio System of the U. S. Air Force is composed of thousands of units scattered throughout the world. MARS handles messages between servicemen and their families during normal periods, but is designed primarily to function during emergencies when it supplements the land communications of the Air Force.

Air Force MARS Station AG1LJW was established on this campus in the fall of 1959 and has been participating in the MARS program ever since. The station also is licensed as an Amateur Radio Station and has been active on the Amateur Radio frequencies using the call letters K1LJW.

Membership in the Station is open to all students. A complete training course leading to Amateur Radio License has been established with the aid of the Foreign Language Laboratory. The classes have been attended by interested persons throughout the Burlington area.

The station has four transmitters with a total output of 1,400 watts of efficient power. One of the newest additions to the station is a complete Single Side-band station, which is the latest development in field of radio communications. Since the addition of this equipment the station has been in communication with such places as Alaska, Greenland, France, Australia and Nicaragua. In the near future the station will activate a teletype unit as well as very high frequency equipment. Preparations are now being made to participate in Project OSCAR of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration which deals with Aerospace Communications.

Basketball

St. Michael's domination of the N.C.A.A. Northeast small college basketball championship came to an abrupt halt during the '60-'61 season as the experience shy Knights posted a disappointing 11-12 slate.

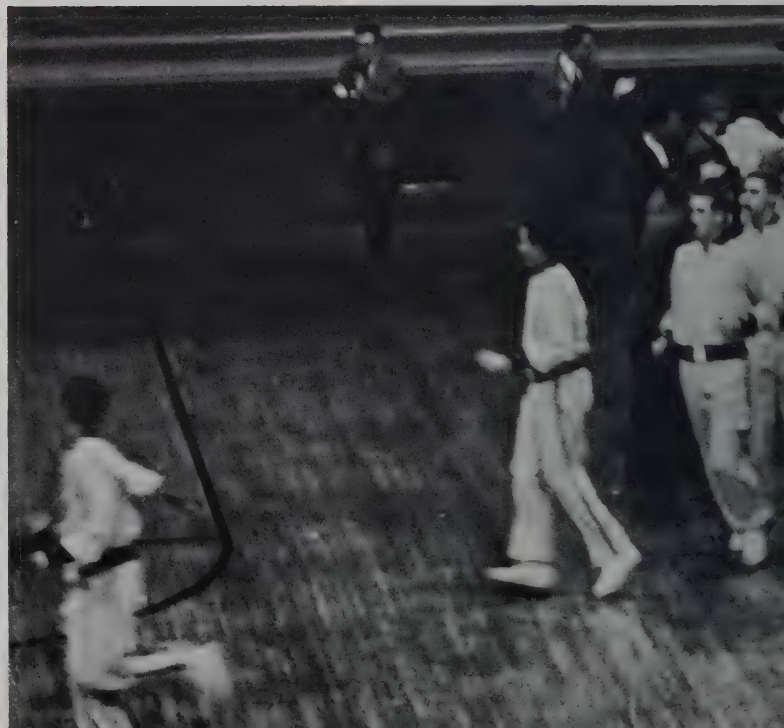

Injury-ridden for most of the season, St. Michael's settled for a tie in the state race with a 65-61 win over Norwich after consoling themselves with a 72-65 upset victory over a powerful St. Anselm's team.

Gone at the beginning of the season were three starters including the leading scorer on the previous year's team. Head Coach George "Doc" Jacobs worked with returning starters Charlie Hart and Al Baldini along with experienced Jim Fitzgerald and a crew of untested but willing sophomores to form the nucleus of the Knights.

The results were sometimes disappointing, such as the losses to Vermont and Norwich. They were sometimes enervating, such as the St. Anselm's win and a four point loss to powerful Providence College. But summing up: the Knights were an unpredictable lot.

The Michaelman faced a tough 23 game schedule including holiday appearances in the Quantico Marine and New York Athletic Club Tourneys. After apparently establishing themselves among New England's small college elite by scoring an opening game win over Adelphi and upsetting Dartmouth, 78-71, injuries felled the Knights in warm Virginia and the ghosts lingered to haunt Coach Jacobs for the remainder of the season. Flashy Fred Cerrato and Al Baldini were a stellar backcourt in the first two outings but played together a mere five times after that due to injuries.

At Quantico, the Jacobs' quintet was soundly beaten in the first round by a strong Jacksonville team and beaten in the second game by a virtually unknown Philadelphia Textile Institute but defeated Atlantic Christian in the final game to place seventh in the tourney. At New York the Knights were supreme against a taller Belmont Abbey quintet only to lose, 64-60, in the closing minutes. They won consolation honors with a victory over Muhlenberg.

Guard Hayes Stagner left with a broken wrist at New York as Al Baldini had barely returned after spraining an ankle in the Quantico classic. Baldini emerged as the team's leading scorer with a 12.5 ppg. average although he appeared in only 17 games and in two just briefly. Individually, his 21 point effort against Adelphi was the best of the year.

Following tourney play, the Knights had trouble putting two successive victories together. They bobbed like a cork as they were set back by Colby, Providence, Norwich, and St. Lawrence while in between, they beat Middlebury, A.I.C. and Vermont.

Chances for a bid to the N.C.A.A. tourney vanished in three games as back to back decisions were dropped to Assumption, Vermont and LeMoyne. Although against LeMoyne, the Knights erased a 16 point lead and lost, 87-83, in overtime.

The Knights actuated some of their vast store of potential in the final six games as Big Jim Fitzgerald led a rebounding attack with Walt Baumann and averaged 17 ppg as St. Michael's won four of its remaining six.

Rifle

Because of an ineligibility ruling of the N.C.A.A., the varsity rifle team was forced to compete without seniors. This left it without ace shooter Dave O'Mara.

AIC Dwinall Deeves, in his first year as coach, inherited an inexperienced team led by Captain Lou Tarnowski and bolstered by a crew of sophomores. The shooters failed to win a match in nine starts but Coach Deeves expects a strong performance next season.

The R.O.T.C. team gave the hilltop its second consecutive William Randolph Hearst Championship. It placed high among the keen competition of the New England and Secretary of the Air Force Tournaments.

The freshman gained valuable experience by firing against all three state rivals. They were defeated but also hold promise for the future.

All home matches were fired in the Ryan Hall range.

Ski

During 1961 the only Catholic college four event ski team in the United States moved into its most impressive season since its establishment at St. Michael's College.

A new program of pre-season practice sessions under the direction of Coach Joe Powers led to the formation of a well balanced team.

Due to the lack of a suitable amount of snow the Knight skiers only entered two college meets, the Colby College Carnival and the Eastern Intercollegiate Ski Association Intermediate Meet which was hosted by St. Michael's for the third straight year.

In the Colby Carnival Meet, held jointly at the Sugarloaf and Farmington Ski areas, the Michaelmen placed first among the class "B" teams in the event. Captain Pete Culhane and Bob Rice led the Nordic forces while Dave Friel paced the Alpine team.

February 4-5 saw the Knights compete in the eight team Eastern Intercollegiate Ski Association Intermediate Trials. Among the teams entered were: Colby, Syracuse, St. Lawrence, Clarkson and Yale. The Knights placed only 23 points behind the winning St. Lawrence entry. The team was again sparked by the excellent performances of Rice and Culhane. Rice took first place in the 91/2 cross country test and Culhane grabbed top jumping honors for the second straight

Soccer

Under the tutorship of Dr. Armando Citarella, varsity soccer temporarily took its place among St. Michael's list of varsity sports. Athletic Director George "Doc" Jacobs wanted a season to survey ability and interest before making it a permanent fixture.

Early in the Fall Coach Citarella issued a call for candidates and it was answered as an opportunity to fill the athletic lull during the lazy Autumn months. A large influx of South American students coupled with American soccer lovers supplied the nucleus for a winning team.

The booters launched a three game schedule against a highly rated Middlebury clan. The greenness was evident as the Knights were upended, 6-2, in the driving rain on a muddy turf. Although beaten Coach Citarella was "tickled pink" with the performances of Juan Tomayo, Pedro Quiros and Mike Fiondella. Brian Tarleton not only viewed his first soccer match but handled the goal tending chores superbly.

In the remaining two matches the kinks were ironed out and the greenness disappeared to give the Michaelmen booters decisions over Lyndon State Teachers College, 3-2 and Norwich University, 4-2.

All three matches were played on the road and all spectators including Athletic Boss "Doc" Jacobs were convinced that soccer could stick at St. Michael's.

Shortly after the season was completed the Athletic Department announced that soccer had become permanent on the hilltop and a six game schedule including home and away games with Middlebury, Lyndon and Norwich would be played in '61.

Purple Squires

Two losses to the Vermont Kittens, the first of which shattered a 27 game winning streak, gave Coach Ed Markey his poorest Purple Squire quintet in five years.

Lacking two experienced guards at the beginning of the season, Markey converted Ed McDonnell and John Jachym to backcourt slots. Don McCaig, Ron Komar and Rod Bushel rounded out a starting five which had height and board strength but lacked a cohesive and consistent offense.

Vermont drew first blood by nipping the Squires, 72-71, in the season's opener. Paul Smith's and Dartmouth salted the wounds by handing the yearlings two successive losses.

The Squires were victorious in four of the five remaining games to knot the season's record at four wins and four losses. The initial win came against Norwich and was followed by triumphs over Plattsburgh State and Dartmouth before Vermont proved its superiority in the second match with a, 79-55 win. The final was a 62-39 verdict over a weak Norwich team.

Guard Ed McDonnell slowly adapted himself to the backcourt slot and emerged as the team's top scorer with 16 points per game. Don McCaig was second in the scoring department with a 12 point per game average. Because of fine board play and continued improvement, Center Ron Komar was named team captain at the conclusion of the season.

Intramurals

Football

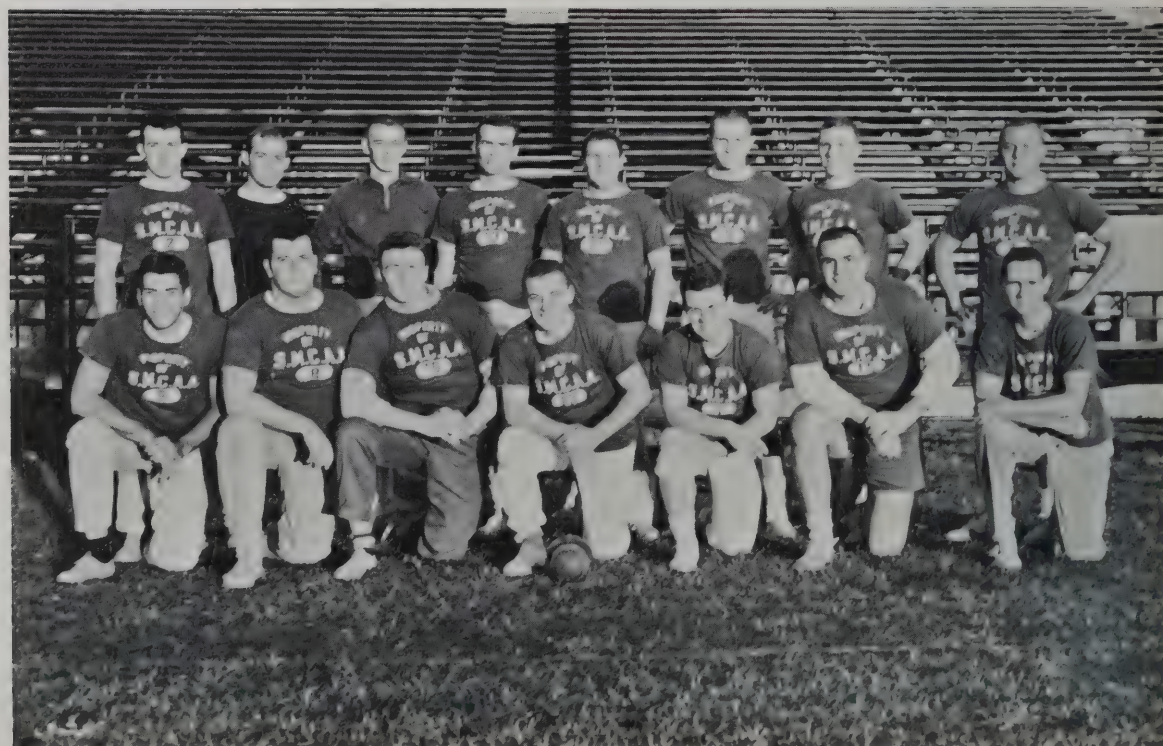

Shortly after the New York Giants turn up St. Michael's field in their pre-season practice, four more teams try to take up where their superiors left off. These four teams comprise the Inter-Class Football League.

Intra-class football is the first inter-class activity of the school year. Each year finds more and more students trying to fill the rosters of the four teams. This inter-class sport is the most popular activity of the school year as evidenced by the large number of students who fill the stands to support their class.

The 1960 football year was divided into two halves. Each class played the other three classes twice. The first half was a runaway for the Sophomores by virtue of a fine pass catching end, Paul Hensinkamp and Dick Powers, a defensive stalwart.

The second half saw a close contest for the winner. At the end of the regular season, there was a tie between Freshmen, Juniors, and Seniors. A playoff was held whereby the winner would play the Sophomores for the championship.

The Freshmen bowed to the Juniors in the first game of the playoffs 12-7. The hard playing of John Dorsey, Mickey Moughan, and Paul Tamborella just wasn't enough to offset the strong Junior team sparked by Bill Freidank, Pete Imbres, Emile Daglio, and John Whitcomb.

The Juniors up-ended the Seniors 13-0 to move into the finals against the Sophomores. Dave Clifford, Dave Richiski, and Dick Torykian looked well in the line and Dennis McCarthy made some spectacular catches of "Kakes" Halpin's passes. Eddie Anibal stopped everything that went his way and proved himself the best defensive linebacker of the 1960 season. Brian Tarleton did an outstanding job also, but the Juniors were just too strong.

Bowling

The highly talented freshman team upset the sophomores on the final night of competition to sweep to the duck-pin bowling championship.

The sophs were runners to the frosh while the senior and junior teams finished, third and fourth, respectively.

Averagewise sophomore Paul Bonnette led all the keggers. He finished with 102 string average. Senior Dave Carmody cleared the wood for a 98 point game average and grabbed runnerup honors.

Jack O'Brien served as captain of the senior team. O'Brien has bowled for his class every year during his four year stay on the Hilltop. During his final year, he held the time consuming job of league commissioner. His help in organizing the league and compiling statistics made the bowling year a successful one.

Basketball

Sweeping to the championship by virtue of a 66-36 playoff victory over the sophomores, the seniors won the Inter-class Basketball League for the second straight year.

The Class of '61 also dominated first-half play by winning all six games but were pinned with three losses during second-half activity. The ill-fated freshmen failed to muster a single victory in 12 outings whereas the juniors won six of 12 games.

The strong rebounding of Bob Paterson and Dick Guilmette matched the scoring effort of Denny McCarthy to give the seniors a well balanced attack.

Coach "Tiny" Farrell aptly utilized his bench crew of Ken Downes, Gerry Humiston and Pete Kullman.

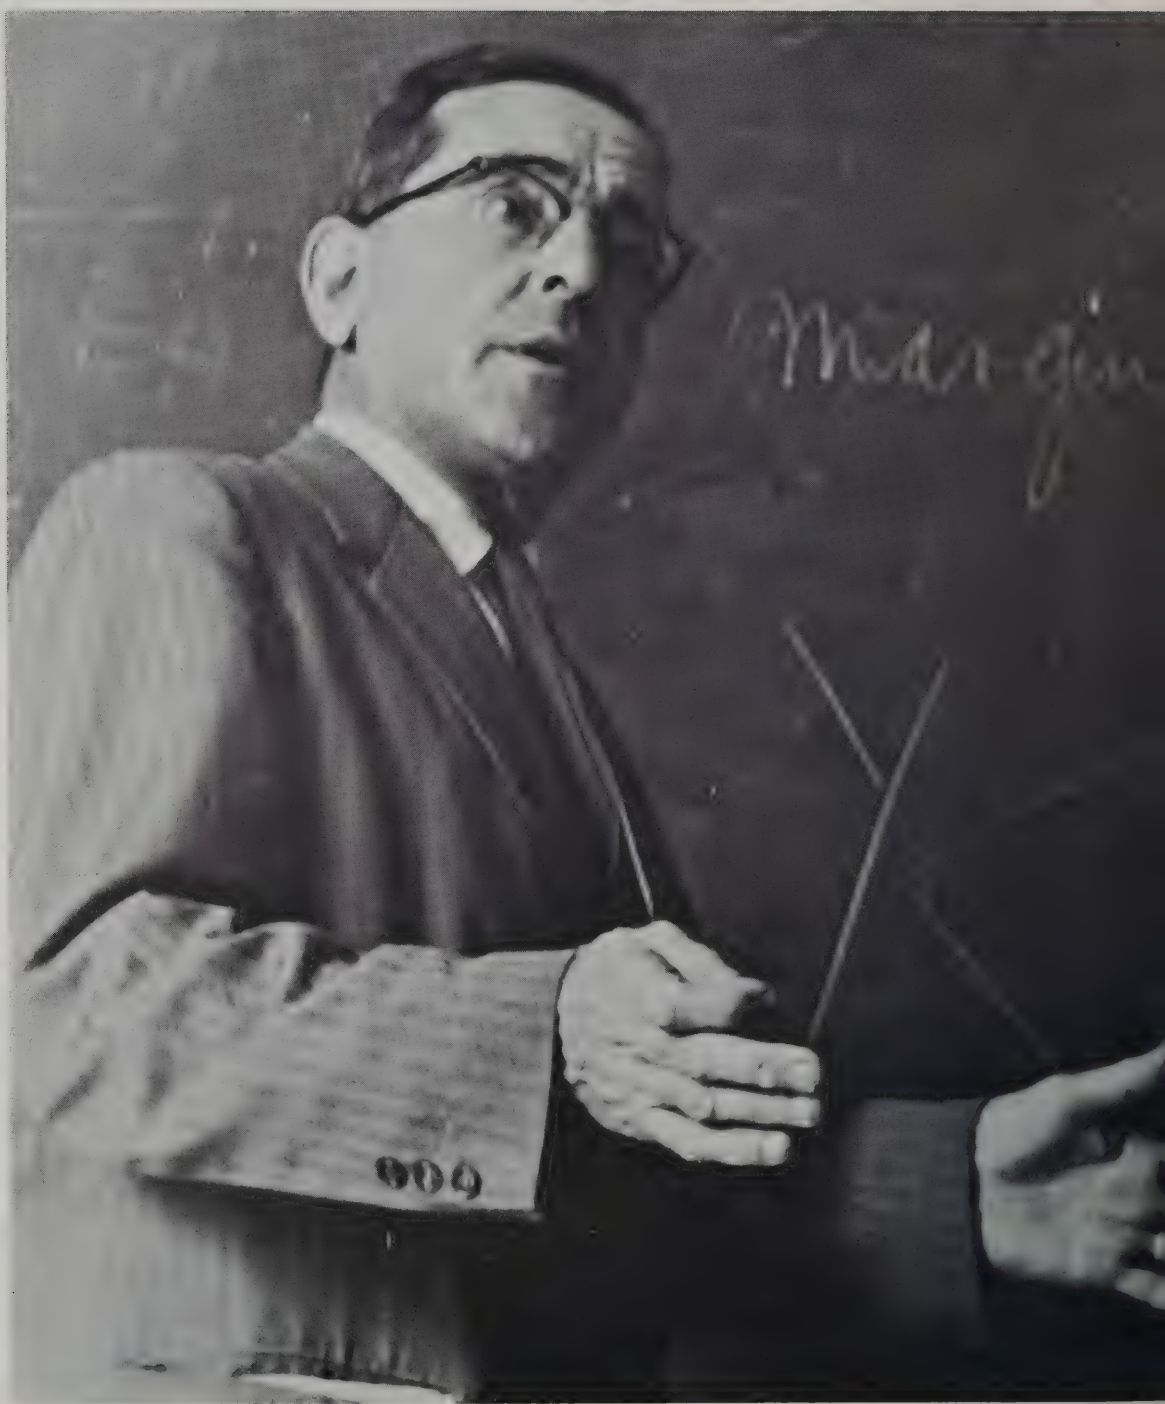

The sophs challenged the seniors for the crown by employing a fastbreaking offense led by Mike Fiondella, Dick Powers and Tom Moore but play in the Green Mountains exhausted the sophomore resources.

IN MEMORIAM

JEREMIAH KINSELLA DURICK, Ph.D.

For thirty-five consecrated years Jeremiah Kinsella Durick had graced the educational scene of his native Vermont before his passing. Much of this time had been spent here at St. Michael's. Dr. Durick, one of the foremost experts on Shakespeare, was known and loved by all who knew him. There is nothing that can be here added to what has already been written of him except to humbly reiterate the phrase, may he rest in peace.

IN MEMORIAM
RICHARD P. McGEE

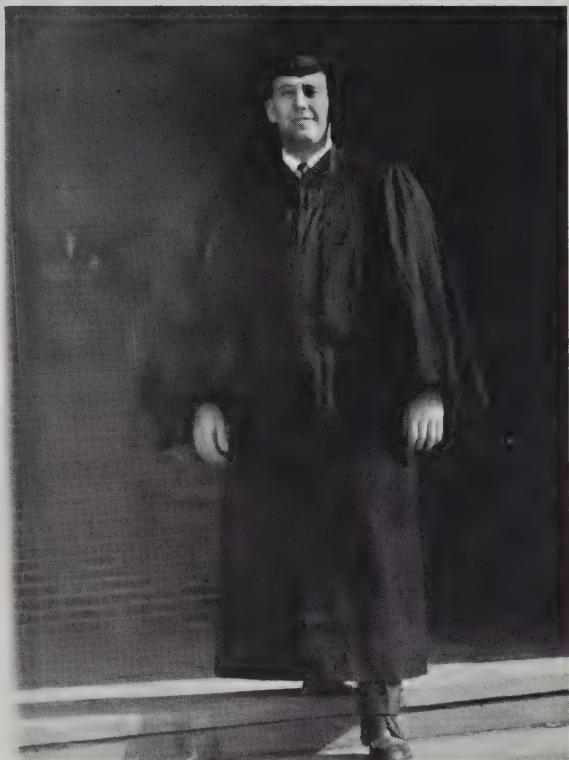

Dick McGee, affectionately known to his associates as Rich, established himself as an outstanding individual during his short stay at St. Michael's. Dick, who had resided in Stamford, Connecticut, was indeed worthy in many ways to be called an honor student. In academics he achieved the dean's list, and he received the coveted award presented by the Veterans of Foreign Wars for the most proficient member of the Freshman Class in ROTC. Dick was outstanding in many other ways which could only be known by his close friends. It will be among those of his friends who will best remember that fatal night, but nevertheless it must be understood that we all have suffered a loss by his absence.

Acknowledgements

Now that you have finished leafing through the entire annual; I, along with the entire staff, would like to express the sincere wish that you have thoroughly enjoyed this yearbook and will continue to do so in the years to come.

The credit for this fine production must be given to the whole corps of workers from the editors down to the last typist. The work done by these men is already enumerated in the Shield write-up so that it will suffice to merely mention it here. However, special acknowledgement must be given to certain individuals not heretofore mentioned such as; E. J. Kirk whose fine photography may be seen in the Senior and the Faculty sections, Mr. Michaels and Major Jacobs for their contributions to the opening section, Father Paulin, Father Coombs and Mr. Donoghue for their advice and understanding and lastly to Roswell Farnham and the entire Keller Company for the superb job done in the actual assembling of the 1961 Shield.

Baseball

As in the two previous years, luck was not with the St. Michael's College baseball squad. Coach Ed Markey's nine finished the ten game slate with a disappointing 3-6-1 mark.

With eight veterans returning from a team that posted a 3-6 mark in 1960, Coach Markey looked to a band of promising sophomores to round out the squad; but poor hitting, inexperience and defensive lapses proved to be the margin of defeat.

The Knights with the help of a heavy shower survived the nemesis which usually leaves them with two defeats by their arch rival University of Vermont. In the first tilt junior Tom Lapine set the Cats down for five innings. Neither team could manage a run for seven innings and rain halted play so the game was recorded as a scoreless tie. In the second tilt UVM prevailed, 6-3.

In state play the Knights posted a 1-4-1 mark, the lone victory coming on a 5-4 decision over Middlebury in the first game of the spring. Norwich turned the Knights back twice. The Markeymen came close in the second, losing 3-2, as Fran Kasheta limited the Knights to two hits.

Dave Carmody's lethal bat drove across five runs with three hits to help trounce Lowell Tech 10-5. During the New York trip the Knights were victimized by Clarkson and St. Lawrence, 12-11 and 8-3 respectively.

John Whitcomb, "the best catcher I have ever coached at St. Michael's," according to Mentor Markey, led the regular stickers with a .306 mark. Sophs Mike Sweeny and Jim Pawloski bettered his mark while seeing only limited play. Sweeny, a shortstop, hit .500 until being felled by an injury in the third game. Pawloski hit .444 in limited right field action near the end of the campaign.

The seniors who have played their last game for the Knights were: Dan Mahoney, Dennis McCarthy, Bernie Couture, Jim Martin and Dave Carmody.

May Day

The First Annual May Day at St. Michael's became a source of inspiration and spiritual satisfaction for the throng of over 2000 people assembled for the devotion.

Conceived and executed by a small committee from the Senior Class, May Day was sculptured on the pattern of Albany's now colossal demonstration of over 100,000 participants.

At first, correspondence was carried on with the College of St. Rose, originator of the Albany rally. Tentative plans were taken to the Very Reverend Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., President of the College, outlining the course of action. The idea met very much with Father Dupont's approval, offering the full-support of the College, and arranging an audience between the Committee's representatives and His Excellency Robert F. Joyce, Bishop of Burlington.

The Parish Organization sub-division of the Committee began by introducing the idea to the various pastors of the immediate Burlington parishes. A favorable reaction was received. Father Geoffrey I. Keating, Spiritual Director of the College, displayed his interest by offering assistance in the capacity of moderator of May Day.

Chairman Gerald M. Dupree swung the other four divisions of the Committee into action in their separate capacities: Publicity, Demonstration, School Organizations, and Secretarial.

May First, a Monday evening, arrived with omens of rain, but people came in great numbers. Buses, cars, bicycles brought many, while some even came on foot. Members of the Crown and Sword Society ushered them to their pre-set places in the order of procession.

A long winding line headed by the cross-bearer and acolytes, priests and religious included St. Michael's, Trinity College, DeGoesbriand Nursing School, and the parishes, assembled in that order. The parishes, largely consistent of children accompanied by adults, participated enthusiastically and devotedly. Particular of these was St. Francis parish in Winooski, aptly represented by the grammar school, grouped in classes by the good sisters, and totaling about 500 children. The St. Joseph's Orphanage of Burlington came in two busloads, courtesy of the Transit Company. Transportation was provided those without the means by individual students with cars.

The procession made its way to a location on the lawn adjoining Alliot Hall and before an altar erected upon its steps, the congregation silenced to hear the opening note by Father Dupont who expressed the deep-founded intentions of our May Day in its Prayer for Peace. The Holy Rosary in honor of Our Blessed Lady followed in mass-recitation as each decade was pronounced by a representative of the assembly.

The Blessed Sacrament, transported in a car from the Chapel and escorted by the Class officers and representatives, approached the altar scene at the conclusion of the Rosary. Solemn Benediction offered a serene and fitting ending as the participants knelt in private solicitation and the choir closed with its hymns.

May Day, a gift from the Senior Class, will be long-remembered and perpetuated as St. Michael's Prayer for Peace.

Commencement

On June 6th, 1961, St. Michael's College proudly graduated another Senior Class.

Mr. McCarthy, in his commencement address, noted that the world about to be entered by the graduates was indeed like a business where one must be industrious in order to achieve success.

Rev. Bishop Joyce presented the diplomas to the graduates along with his customary comment to each.

The boys in blue went from the rank of "cadet" to that of lieutenant. Their certificates were presented to them by Col. Treacy, who also spoke of the challenge awaiting them in the world permeated by the cold war.

As the graduates filed out of Memorial Auditorium thoughts of the past four years and thoughts of the future passed through their minds. All, however, seemed to have two ideas in common; a sense of achievement, and a realization that their life was now just beginning.
